

ABOUT RENOVATING MATTHEW

Matthew Ames was 39 years old when what started as a sore throat resulted in the loss of all four of his limbs. He had contracted streptococcal toxic shock and was never expected to survive. Now six months later Matthew has beaten the odds, spurred on by the fact that he is the father of four young children aged between two and nine and husband of a very dedicated wife determined to grow old with him.

Colleagues from the energy resources community have joined together to assist Matthew achieve his goals through ongoing fundraising.
